Canada

Canada is the second biggest country in the world, second only to Russia. In fact, Canada is bigger than the entire European Union put together!

There are many interesting facts about Canada, some may surprise you! The country is called "The Great White North"!

Canada has ten provinces and three territories. It also has six time zones!

Its capital city is Ottawa. Ottawa is in the province of Ontario. It has a population of 36 million people. This is small compared to other countries. It is also small considering its large size!

Over 80% of the population live near the United States border. The Canadian and US border is the largest border in the world. Over 30% of the country is a forest. And Canada has 10% of the world's forests! Canada also has more lake areas than any other country in the world.

Canada is a very young country. Canada became a country only in 1867. The country celebrated its 150th birthday in July 2017. July 1st is the Canada Day. People all across the country celebrate by wearing red and white. Red and white are the national colours shown on its flag.

Canada was first discovered by the French explorer, Jacques Cartier in 1534. Of course, people had been living in Canada long before that.

Canada's national animal is a beaver! And it has two national languages, both English and French. But only two provinces are officially French speaking, Quebec and New Brunswick.

Canada is still strongly tied to the country of England. Like Australia, Canada celebrates the Queen of England as their Queen too!

Where is Roxy?

After classes Chloe arrives home, makes a cup of coffee and goes to her bedroom. Everything is quiet and she plays with her pet rats. Chloe has two rats called Zena and Roxy. They live in a cage in Chloe's bedroom. Chloe knows that most people don't like rats. A year ago, Chloe didn't like rats either. Once, her friend Martin showed Chloe his rats and Chloe saw how intelligent and affectionate they were.

When one of Martin's rats had babies, Chloe asked her mum if she could have two pet rats for her birthday present. Her parents didn't like it, but Chloe got an excellent school report and they decided to give Chloe that present.

'There's one very important rule,' said Chloe's mum. 'The rats live in your bedroom and never go to other rooms, especially the kitchen!'

In her room, Chloe opened the cage. She picked up Roxy and put her on the floor. Then she picked up Zena and put her on her shoulder. Roxy loved to explore climbing furniture and going under Chloe's bed. Zena was quieter and liked sitting on Chloe's shoulder.

Someone knocked on the door. 'Hi, Chloe,' called Mum.

'Mum, come in.'

'I'm going to my aerobics class. I'll return at seven. Dad's on his way home. He's making pasta tonight.'

'OK, Mum', Chloe replied.

Mum went away. Chloe called for Roxy. She started to search the house but she didn't find Roxy.

When Dad came, they looked all over the house but couldn't find Roxy anywhere.

Soon Mum came. She was smiling and Roxy was on her shoulder. When she arrived at the gym and opened her bag, she found Roxy sleeping in one of her shoes. She picked her up for the first time and understood that she liked rats too.
